

Throughout her life, Trisston has worked diligently to bring about an understanding of the ability of people with disabilities.

Miss America 1995, Heather Whitestone, with Trisston during the events of the 1995 Awareness of People with Disabilities.

Alabama Governor Bob Riley and Trisston in 2004 as he signs the Proclamation declaring the Awareness of the Abilities of People with Disabilities... a direct result of her work with Governor Riley and others within the State of Alabama Administration.

Trisston has spent her life encouraging others to live by the words of Henry David Thoreau: "If one advances confidently in the directions of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours."

The City of Prattville honored Trisston by giving her the Gold Key to the City and declaring July 19, 2005 as Trisston Wright Day.

As Ms. Wheelchair America/Alabama 2005, Trisston has made personal appearances, media interviews and presentations to hundreds of organizations... including state and local government committees and agencies, civic clubs, schools and universities, and churches.

If you would like to schedule a personal appearance or presentation by Trisston, please contact Mr. Brian Burrows at info@trisstonswrightburrows.com. More information about Trisston can be found at www.trisstonswrightburrows.com.

Ms. Wheelchair America/Alabama

Trisston Wright Burrows

Trisston was diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy shortly after her birth in 1975, but she has never allowed the disabilities that accompany this diagnosis to slow her down.

*On October 2, 2004
Mrs. Trisston Wright Burrows
originally from Prattville,
Alabama was crowned
Ms. Wheelchair America/Alabama
2005.*

Trisston was an active member of the Prattville High School Marching Band.

Along with many of her friends, Trisston attended and graduated from Kindergarten.

Trisston was the first child with a disability to attend public school in Prattville, Alabama.

While attending Auburn University - Montgomery, Trisston was an Officer in the Delta Zeta Sorority.

Trisston graduated with Honors from Auburn University - Montgomery.

*During her Sophomore year at
Auburn University - Montgomery
Trisston won First Runner-Up in the Homecoming Court*

